

To prevent duplication of the patterns, records were kept that granted the privilege of wearing a certain crest to a particular fighter and this right was extended down to his family. Many times these patterns were recorded in ancient record books.

So where did the Ancell family name come from? Let's begin at the beginning. From all of the records on hand, it would appear that the Ancell family descended from the Norman race. It was thought the family derived from French origin but they were actually of Viking descent.

The year 870 A.D. shows the Vikings landing in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland under their leader, Sturgus the Stout. In 910 A.D. under their Earl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France. When Rollo laid siege to Paris, the French King, Charles the Simple, finally conceded to defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Rollo became the first Duke of Normandy, the so called new territory of the North men. Rollo married the daughter of Charles and eventually converted to Christianity.

In 1066 Duke William, a descendant of the first Duke of Normandy, invaded and defeated England. In 1086 he took a census of most of England and recorded it in the Domesday Book. It became the authority, the point of departure, for the ownership of land in England. A family name capable of being traced back to this document, or to Hastings, was a signal honour for most families during the middle ages, and even to this day.

The research from many ancient manuscripts and documents shows the first record of the name of Ancell to be found in the English county of Kent, where they were granted lands shortly after the Norman Conquest by King William the Conqueror in 1066 A.D. It is thought the Ansell (Ancell) family descends from a Pierre Anselm, Archbishop of Canterbury, Ansell being the shorter version of the name taken on by most branches of this noble Norman family who accompanied the Conqueror into England.

The Ancell name emerged to a notable family name in the county of Bedfordshire where they had moved from Kent soon after the Conquest. Records show they were granted lands in the town of Barford, which became their family seat and they also held estates in Middlesex. Many of the estates were forfeited to the crown when the family fell out of favor with the Royal Court in the Middle Ages.

In the 12th century many Norman families moved to Scotland, following the train of Earl of Huntingdon, who would later become King David of Scotland. The surname Ansell contributed much to local social and political life and to the affairs of England.

In the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries, England and Scotland were ravaged by the religious and political conflict which brought about many injustices to the people. The Monarchy, the Church and Parliament fought for supremacy. Religion was divided by the Church of State, the Roman Church and the Reform Church.

Each faction, in its time, imposed its influence, assessments, tithes and penalties on the rich and poor alike. The spirit of the people were broken forcing many to turn away from the church.

Loyalties were engineered, marriages were arranged to acquire greater possessions, estates and influence at court. Many families were encouraged to migrate to Ireland, or to the Colonies. Non believers and dissidents were banished, sometimes even hanged.

The unrest caused many to think seriously of migrating to distant lands. The rumors and stories of the attractions of the New World spread throughout the world. Many immigrants sailed aboard the armada of small sailing ships known as the white sails which plied the stormy Atlantic seas.

These overcrowded ships were pestilence ridden, with sometimes 30% to 40% of the passenger list never reaching their destination, decimated by illness and the elements.

Ancell? Ansell? Anseline? Well, what's in a name? Whatever the variation in spelling we are all still from the same family. In North America, migrants which could be considered kinsman of the family name of Ancell included Edward Ansell, settled in Nevis in 1663; Elizabeth Ansell settled in Virginia in 1685, age 17; Claude Anseline, settled in New Orleans in 1719; David Ansell, settled in Philadelphia in 1752 and then moved westward: Edward Ancell settled in New York then on to Calvert county, Md.

Information from Apprentices Of Virginia 1623-1800; Harlod B. Gill, Jr.; Ancestry; ISBN -916489-40-X: page 9: shows us 2 Ancell surnames:

As one researches the Ancell family name, various spellings emerge. Some of the surnames were spelled Ansell, Ancelle, Anselm, Anselme, Anstrell, Aunselme, Anscell, Anstell, Anstel, Anstill, Anscill, Ansill, Ansstell, Anschell, Anschel, Anstrelly, Anstrel, Anscrell, Anskell, Anstall, Hanstell, Hanstall, Hanstrel, Hansell, and Hansall.

Scribes recorded and spelled the name as it personally sounded to them. There have been cases where a person would be born with one spelling, married with another, and buried with a tombstone which showed another. Spelling variations would change from father to son, or others would just decide to change the spelling to please themselves.

Our bloodline stems from Edward Ancell, who was born in Oxfordshire in Oxford County, England, Oct. 4, 1748.

It is told that he was strongly encouraged to leave England for having relations with a woman of higher stature. His thoughtful mother sewed silver on his jacket as buttons so he would have money when he arrived in the new world. He landed in New York, as did many immigrants and made his way to Calvert County, Maryland.

Serving out his apprenticeship as a mason, he worked for the Catterton Family helping and burning brick to build homes. As time went on he built the house of his employer and married his daughter, Sarah Catterton.

In April of 1779 Edward purchased 200 acres on Taylor's Run in Orange County, Virginia where he and Sarah resided and had 10 children, (7 boys and 3 girls).

When Edward died in 1832 and he left all his belongings to his wife, children and their descendants. The following reading is his will and testament which is recorded in Orange County, Virginia Will Book 7, p. 451.

"In the name of God Amen. I Edward Ancell of the County of Orange and State of Virginia being in a weak and infirm but of sound sense and memory and calling to mind the uncertainty of life the certainty of death, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following: and first I bequeath my soul to God who gave it to me hoping at the general resurrection to receive forgiveness for all my sins and for what world goods it hath pleased God to bless me with. I give and bequeath in the following manner: Item, I lend the whole of my estate both real and personal to my loving wife Sarah during her natural life and at her death I lend the land whereon I now live to my daughter Mary and my son John, to be enjoyed by them during each of their single estate. Item, my will and desire after my wife's is that my son John should have my Negro man Harry and my dark bay horse to him and his heirs forever. Item, my will and desire that the balance of my estate not already given nor loaned away should be sold on twelve months credits, the purchaser giving bond and approved security and the money arising from such sale to be equally divided in ten parts after my just debts are paid giving one part to my daughter Ann Marshall, one part to my son Henry Ancell's children, one part to my son Robert Ancell's, one part to my son Edward Ancell, one part to my son William Ancell's children, one part to my son Michael Ancell, one part to my son James Ancell, one part to my daughter Elizabeth Lacy, one part to my daughter Mary Ancell, one part to my son John Ancell, to them and their heirs forever. Item, My will and desire is after the marriage of my daughter and son John Ancell the land that I lent them is to be sold and divided as hereafter directed. Lastly I appoint my son Michael Ancell and John Ancell whole and sole executors to this my last will and testament, revoking all other will or wills heretofore make by me, acknowledging this to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-fifth day of December, 1831.

(signed) Edward Ancell

Note: Most family members buried Falls Mill Church Cemetery.

If your name is Ancell, you have an interesting Ancell family history. For centuries, most people used only one name to identify themselves. As the population began increasing, the need for more identification also became increasingly apparent, especially in small towns, clans, and villages where perhaps 1/3 of the males were named James or some other popular name.

And so to distinguish one James from another, a second name was desired. The four main sources for these names were: 1) a man's occupation or trade, such as Cook, Tanner, or Hunter. 2) his father's name, Robertson, Jackson, or Davidson. 3) his locale, such as Jesus of "Nazareth," Thomas "Uphill," or William "Groves." 4) even his characteristics or looks might be used, i.e. James Legg, William Redman, or John Fox.

Sometimes extra identification was needed for certain groups. The fighting men of the Middle Ages were known to wear a metal suit of armor for protection. More than likely, this same suit of armor included a helmet that completely covered the head, making the warrior unrecognizable.

To prevent a friend from attacking his ally during battle, it became very important for each knight to somehow identify himself. Many fighters accomplished this by painting colorful designs on their shields.

These same designs were also sewn into cloth surcoats which were placed over a fighter's suit of armor, giving him his family crest or what is known as the "Coat of Arms." The Ancell's wore theirs into battles in which they engaged.

Dear Sandi,

In case I do not get my Genealogy Book published I have copied 40 pages of your direct line of the Basleys. I hope it won't be difficult for you to follow and understand.

I haven't decided just how or what method I will use to cross match all the descendants. I do so want to have all of ones family together instead of looking all thro the book for the grandfather, father, children, grandchildren, cousins etc.

By the time one has looked everyone up ^{first} they have forgotten who they just looked up.

In copying this for you I really was surprised how many cousins haven't told me their family data.

Don't you think family group or individual pictures of the Aunts, Uncles, Grandparents, and parents, brothers, sisters etc. in the Genealogy much more meaningful.

Don't the direct lines

Our David
Bosely
sister

for Lydia Bean, Landonia Hicke
John Bosely, Solomon Bosley Julia Ann
Bosely Bean, etc all their brothers and sisters sons and daughters, etc.

I do not type. I will have to find someone to come in to help me when I can get my records copied
the way I want it.

Besides working on my fathers ancestors and descendants I have been working on my mothers ancestors and their descendants too.

I have 15 big individual family files besides 13 individual files I have on my grandfather Rosses brothers and sisters and their descendants.
Grandfather was the youngest of 12 children.

I guess you have by now wondered about the different spelling I have of Bosely. I understand William Bosely spelled his last name with two ee or eley. The Hampshire County Cousins dropped the first e and they spell their name Bosley and the Brafton County cousins dropped the last e and spell their name Bosely.

~~Send~~ many thanks for remembering my birthday. The card and note was lovely. Gratefully appreciated. I received 30 cards + telephone calls too.

My late brother D.L. and I attended one of the John William Basely's family reunions held at Burnsville Park in Aug. 1977. My brother made a chopping board for each of Uncle John's living children and gave the boards to them that day. Your mother was present that day. I remember I thought she looked so much like your grandmother Basely's sister Sylvia when she was your mother's age. Were you there that day?

What country is Letter Gap in? I would be most happy for your mother to stop by to see me. ^{Taylor Co.} Flemington is far from Clarkburg. Tell her to ^{call} me to let me know when she is coming. I will give her directions to me.

(739-2231)
I am appointing you to keep me advised of your parents' family graduations, deaths change of addresses, oh yes, births too etc. Next time you go home see what you can do about Pictures).

Maybe I have already told you that I am the last of my immediate family. It isn't any fun living alone but I am still living in the home of my birth and ^{home of} my mother's birth too. It has been my pride and joy most of my 73 years.

Your grandmother ~~was~~ 80 years my senior.

Year before last your great Aunt Sylvia her daughter Mary Agnes her husband and your great Uncle Herbert Bosely stopped to see me on their way to Bampton County to the John W. Bosely Reunion. I was so pleased but so surprised since I didn't know they were coming and I hadn't seen any of them since 1977 Reunion. They were all standing on the porch and I was giving them all my attention but I was certainly having a hard time in recognizing them. All at once I saw Aunt Carrie ^{face and smile} in Sylvia's face and I said "You are Sylvia". They were so pleased. Sylvia stayed with us and kept house two winters after Mother died in 1938. I must stop before I fill up this notebook. Sincerely yours,
Grace W. Bosely

Dear Sandi

I am sorry I didn't get this mailed to you sooner but for several days I have been writing the first copy of the Bosely Genealogy. I decided it had to be done before I could have my manuscript typed. I have 200 pages written and still have a great great Uncle and his descendants to write up.

There are several letters I must write to try to secure more family data about my grandfather James Gibson Bosely's descendants. I will hate to have to finish my book with so many blank spaces in the record.

Your nice letter and request to know more about your Bosely ancestors and their descendants certainly got me back in the mood to work on my Genealogy History again.

It all depends how the Cousins send to my letters for more data about their families how soon I will be able to get my book published. I hope to have it finished by the end of '85. I certainly will let you know.

As ever,

Gracie
